133 Ai	: My parents bought a dog for my brother and me last year	r.
	He's one year old now. He's very cute.
(33) Bill	: It's a male dog, isn't it? What's his name?
133 Ai	: We named him Kotaro. But my father calls him Kota.

Bill: "Kota" sounds cute. Do you take care of him every day?

Yes. My brother and I give him food. And we have to walk him for thirty minutes in the morning and in the evening.

Bill : Isn't taking care of him hard?

Yes, it is. When it's rainy or cold, walking him is hard.

But my parents said to us before they gave him to us, "Take care of the dog by yourselves, or you can't have it." He is a member of my family. He makes us happy.

Ms. Green: Hi, I'm Mary Green, your new teacher. I'm going to teach you English for a year. Do you have any questions? Takeru : What should we call you? Ms. Green: Well, before I answer your question, I have to tell you some important things. When you ask a question, raise your hand. Then tell your name because I don't know your name. After I remember all of your names, you don't have to do it. OK. Ask me a question again. Takeru : I'm Kato Takeru. What should we call you? Ms. Green: Call me Ms. Green during the class. But you can call me Mary after we finish our class. My friends call me May. Takeru : Can you speak Japanese? Ms. Green: Yes. But I don't speak Japanese when I teach you English in class. well ええと raise (手を)あげる (注) important 大切な thing こと then それから remember おぼえる again もう一度 本文の内容に合うものを次から1つ選びましょう。 (1) ア グリーン先生は1年間英語を教える予定だ。 イ グリーン先生は生徒の名前を全部おぼえている。 生徒はグリーン先生をメアリーと呼んではいけない。 グリーン先生の友だちは彼女をメアリーと呼ぶ。 (2))ときは、手をあげて(() を言うこと。 (3) 本文の内容に合うように、次の質問に英語で答えましょう。 Does Ms. Green speak Japanese when she teaches English in class?
